H. H. Benner, Eighteenth Infantry. In obedience to telegraphic instructions from headquarters Department of the South, Newport Barracks, Ky., September 29 and September 30, 1878, First Lieut. H. H. Benner, Eighteenth Infantry, and I left Atlanta, Ga., on the morning of October 1, 1878, and proceeded directly to Saint Louis, Mo., where we arrived in the evening of October 2, 1878. Lieutenant Benner reported to Gov. A. R. Shepherd, chairman national relief committee, and I reported to Lieutenant Benner, according to instructions, upon our arrival at the Lindell Hotel, Saint Louis. The steamer John M. Chambers, a stern-wheel boat of about 300 tons capacity, had been chartered for the occasion, and as being loaded with stores for distribution, and of which boat and cargo Lieutenant Benner was to take charge as commander, with me as his assistant, the cargo to be distributed according to printed instructions given Lieutenant Benner by Governor She)herd, a copy of which is inclosed. While awaiting the completion of the loading of the boat a telegram was received by Lieutenant Benner from Brig. Gen. Augur, commanding Department of the South, to the effect that there was an apprehension of an attack being made on the boat, by lawless mobs, for the purpose of securing the stores, and directing him to take precautions against the possibility of such an occurrence. Lieutenant Benner received 20...
