iUniverse, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.If you have a dog, cat or other pet ? say a beagle (a class of its own), and ever think about heaven and life after death this book is for you. It is about hounds, heaven and the hereafter. Even if you do not accept all of the author s dogma (pardon the pun), if you are an animal lover and ever wonder what your pet is thinking (or imagine what they would say to you if they could talk back in a human voice) you will identify with this book. The author takes plenty of liberty in presenting his beagle s persona ? extra fanciful at times ? but stays with proof verses on matters of scriptural claims regarding subjects of beginnings, the fall of man, salvation and redemption . . . and eschatology [the part of theology concerned with death, judgment, and the final destiny of the soul and of humankind . . . and in this case, animal kind or the animal kingdom.] But besides presenting the case for an on-going human-animal relationship beyond this life, the book which may come across for some as a Bible study, looks at real life issues albeit sometimes from the viewpoint of a dog with human like perception. This is a book about a lot of things ? but more than anything else it is a book about a Pilgrim, a born again believer in Christ who happens to be a dog lover, believing that he and his dog (a beagle or beagle-mix named Sadie ) will spend eternity together in a place called Heaven. In the mean time ? waiting and watching ? Sadie Sue Dog...
