Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: .Illiteracy in Dale County, that had pictures of people as old and older than she, who were going to school and learning to read and write. This made her more interested than before. Every time I read or heard about any old person going to school I told her about it. This interested her very much. ., My Pupil. The work was begun in earnest about the first of June 1916, when I gave her a copy book. She began to use the book as soon as I gave it to her. She would work with her writing whenever she had time and when I went to her home she would show me her work and I would help her with anything she did not understand. Mrs. Worshim was at that time confined to the house and her writing was a pleasant pastime; for that reason it was no trouble to keep her interested. This teaching experience has certainly given me pleasure. Sincerely, Marion County. Juliette Green. (See letter, page 107.) WORK IN THE SCHOOL. New Decatur, Ala., Oct. 17, 1916. Miss Esther Foster, Montgomery, Ala. Dear Miss Foster: I am sending you a picture of the family of Mr. J. E. McMillan, all of whom, and another grown son who was not present when the picture was taken, were regular attendants in our summer school for adults. The persons in the picture are Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, two sons and two daughters, and a little...
