Excerpt: .classes, either in University College or in Manchester New College, is periodically tested by examination held by the Professors or other Examiners appointed by the committee of the last-named College, at the end of every term, and a public examination at the close of the Session. UNDERGRADUATE PERIOD. During this period the Student is chiefly engaged in the classes of University College, in Greek, Latin, and Mathematics, or Natural Philosophy. If he be on the Foundation, Manchester New College defrays the fees for these three courses, but does not encourage him to disperse his attention over more. Should he intend to graduate, he is expected to matriculate in the University of London not later than the end of his first year, and to take the degree of B.A. by the end of the third, so as to bring an undivided interest to the studies of his Theological...
