Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book, though small, contains material that might easily be spread out into many volumes. It is a sort of philosopher s confession of Faith. Indeed, it might even be compared with the famous book of Thomas a Kempis. At least I know of no work that could so well as this be said to do for religion without the supernatural what that remarkable book did for Christianity. But, indeed, Dr. Bosanquet s work is also based on the religion of Jesus; and it is so finely done that it seems almost a desecration to offer any criticism upon it. I will confine myself to a single comment. Chapter VII, on Prayer and Worship, is headed with this quotation: After this manner therefore pray ye. . Thy will be done and it is mainly occupied with injunctions to accept all apparent evils as being fundamentally good. I hope it is not irrelevant to point out that this is not exactly the lesson that is naturally taken from the context of the quotation: Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. This seems to imply at least that the will is done more perfectly in some parts of the Cosmos than in others. It is as if one were to say Help me to make my own little garden as fine in its way as the gardens at Kew. It would not be worthwhile to call attention to this if it were not that the omission of the context seems to form part of the running polemic against the ethical attitude which is to be found in almost all Dr. Bosanquet s recent...
