It is difficult to say which is the first act of the Passion. I may take the first moment of our Lord s life, and there are many references to the Passion throughout His life; but the first physical act is this journey to the Garden where He was to accept His Passion, and begin the sufferings which were to end in death. He went, therefore, from the town into a country place called Gethsemane, and said to His disciples, Sit you here, till I go yonder and pray. And taking with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to grow sorrowful and to be sad. This deliberate coming of our Lord to the Garden, and His retiring even from His disciples in order to be more private in His prayer, is an example to all those whom He has called to follow Him in love.
